While Phoenix is more interested in motor sports at Prescott's coming second annual Frontier day, the goes goes will also receive a good measure of attention in those parts. How do I know? Why, because of the large number of inquiries concerning the booking of broncos and steer roping contests, that have been received from South Arizona cowpunchers.

In reply to an urgent scream for information, we have dug up from the Prescott records, the following summary of cowpunching contests:

Contests will be at the Frontier grounds from 2 to 5 p. m.

1. Cowboy track and fancy roping. First prize, $50; second, $25; third, $10. No entrance fee.

HAL BENNETT GOLF WINNER

President's Cup Presented to Successful Contestant in Country Club's Annual Trials; Was in Finals for Four Straight Years

Hal C. Bennett, golf champion of the Phoenix Country Club, that is the new title won by the prominent Phoenixer in the finals of the annual tournament on the Country Club links yesterday.

Coit Myers was the runner-up, and by all accounts he gave the winner a hard battle for first place.

As a golfer, Bennett has starred for several years, but this is the first time he has ever displayed true championship luck, no matter what his form might have been in the past. For four years, he has been the runner-up, competing in the finals.

The President's Cup, the official badge of the winner, is a tall handsome gold and silver mug, and was presented to the club as a perpetual challenge trophy by the late George Halm. This spring twenty entries competed for it, and the play has occupied all moments for the past three weeks, during which some very creditable scores were made.

RUSSIA TO FLY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—Russia's co-operation in the around-the-world aeronautical race projected by the Panama-Pacific exposition is assured in advice received today. St. Petersburg, it is announced, will be taken up by the sporting committee of the Aero Club Imperial de Russia in the Russian territory. The aviator Janior, under the supervision of this organization, is preparing to make a flight from St. Petersburg to Peking, a distance of 5,599 miles, more than one-fourth of the entire aerial girdle of the globe.

ALMOST every town and hamlet on the Pacific Coast has its garage or supply store where the Red Crown sign is displayed. Wherever you see that sign it means Quality, Uniformity and Reliability in gasoline. It means that wherever you motor you can obtain the same high grade fuel, and so avoid the troubles that come with changes of gasoline.

Make it a practice to ask for Red Crown, the real gasoline—a straight product of refining—not a mixture.

Red Crown signs are furnished to all dealers handling this gasoline. Watch for the sign or ask our nearest agency about delivery in bulk.

WILSON HAS NO REASON TO WITHDRAW TROOPS

Colorado Strike Zone Will be Patrolled by Regulars Indefinitely

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
DENVER, May 18.—The assurances given by the war department that there is no intention of immediately withdrawing the federal troops caused general satisfaction to strikers, mine owners and state officials. Governor Ammons made known that he is anxious for United States cavalry to guard the strike district until the state can control the situation and states that even if the federal troops are withdrawn he will not send militia back until its presence is imperative.

Meantime steps toward a possible mediation are being considered. The legislative committee appointed to advise with Governor Ammons in handling the strike will meet May 22. Under the resolutions providing its appointment the committee is empowered to conduct the investigation and consider ways and means for restoring peace and maintaining order throughout the state. The resolution also provides that the committee may investigate whether the coal companies are observing the state law relative to check-weighman, permitting workmen to trade where they please, non-discrimination against union and non-union men in the wages paid and the amount of coal hands leased, as well as other causes of the strike.

Black Hand Work

TRINIDAD, May 18.—The "Death hand of Segundo" is in the opinion of army officers, responsible for the wounding of Juan Cruz, a Mexican striker in the first shooting since the military occupation of the strike district. Cruz was shot through the arm with a small caliber bullet. Cruz complained at military headquarters that some one tried to assassinate him because he belonged to the fact that last December Cruz received a black hand letter written in Spanish and signed "The death hand of Segundo." It warned Cruz to leave the state. A plan for the reorganization of local branches of the United Mine Workers to prevent disorders was talked over between some army officers and strike leaders.

The scheme suggested is to divide the strikers into bodies of about forty each, under local leaders. Each leader is to be held accountable for the conduct of the men of his detachment.

AFTER MORE REFUGEES

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
SAN DIEGO, May 18.—The biological research schooner, Alexander Agassiz, is to make a cruise to the west coast of Mexico in the interest of American refugees. It is reported. The fact there are no more merchant steamers, other than those of the Pacific Mail engaged in the Panama trade available, caused a shortage of craft for those who desire to leave the lower coast.

NEWS AND VIEWS OF SPORT

Geel! Just look what we have been overlooking all this time. They had an annual golf tournament at the country club, and we didn't hear a line about it. Sometimes those important sport events slip by without the aid of publicity. From all we hear, the contest was a very successful one, with twenty entries, out of whom Hal Bennett was returned the winner.

Wonder if Graney was paid not to tell what was said at and near first base in Sunday's Tempe-Phoenix baseball game.

L. E. Weyand offered to repeat his single Ex stunt against the Harleys, yesterday. You remember Weyand lost the yo-heaver contest to the twin Harley, and he turned right around and said, "Give me the same gear ratio advantage, and I'll trim you with a single." This single trimmed a couple of twin Indians the other night, and that's what started all this furor about pulling contests.

Cur-r-reed! Can you see our reputation for accuracy and completeness in baseball going crashing down? We can. Fans who have had memories as to standings will have noted that the Cincinnati-New York game in the National League was not in yesterday's Republican, although the game was credited to the Reds in the standing of the clubs. Well, it was this way. Cincinnati beat New York 5 to 1. The score for that game arrived on a late file and when it went to the printer marked "add National" he looked it over. We believe he is betting on the Giants. Anyway, he neglected to put it in, which is awful. Never let it occur again.

Hope the printer who sets this isn't the same one.

Boxes for the press at the baseball park were installed last week, and used for the first time Sunday. The convenience of these little corrals is highly appreciated. For scoring, they can't be beat. Manager Baum has promised us some desks, so that we can stick our feet up and be real comfortable—also put our score book on it. In a short while the entire center section will be made over into boxes, with a good sun canopy over them. The prices for the boxes will be a little higher than for ordinary seats, a fact which will make for exclusiveness. Baum is hoping the venture will prove successful in bringing a better representation of fair fans, who are believed to exist in large numbers in Phoenix.

From the chronicle of the Fort McDowell run, the path of the motorcycle tourists must be just one damn spill after another. Look back. Cast your eye over the chapters of accidents. They have been filled with interesting details about every run the club has had. The Phoenix boys have pulled the following successful runs: Castle Hot Springs, Tucson, Florence, Uncle George, E. Young's mine, Roosevelt Valley, McDowell. Pretty fair for a small association like ours.

URRUTIA IS REFUGEE IS ARRESTED TWICE

Ex-Minister of Interior for Huerta Has Exciting Time in Vera Cruz

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
VERA CRUZ, May 18.—Hosted and jeered by a small mob of Mexicans, Dr. Aureliano Urrutia, ex-minister of the interior, and once Huerta's most trusted confidant, was arrested for the second time since his arrival as a refugee from the capital. One of the Mexicans called him an assassin, saying his brother was killed by Urrutia's order.

The ex-minister fled from Mexico City to escape Huerta's wrath, and had the appearance of an ordinary laboring man when he disclosed his identity on board an American train on this side of the map. He was detained by the American officers and taken before General Funston, who ordered him set free.

He was again taken into custody because of the demonstrations against him, but was released a second time and guarded in a room by marines. Urrutia requested this protection, believing his life was in danger from his own people.

Antonio Rivera de la Torre, editor of El Dictamen, was the leader of the demonstration. He appeared in the street below the room of the hotel occupied by Urrutia and began an impassioned speech, shouting, "Assassin and coward!" He charged that Urrutia was responsible for the execution of his brother, one of the deputies in the congress which Huerta dissolved. He challenged Urrutia to appear before the small crowd of his countrymen which had gathered.
